Galatians 1:3-4

FBCGL Kids: Nehemiah 6-8 - After some of the Jews returned from exile and the temple was rebuilt, they realized the walls to the city needed to be rebuilt too. God raised up Nehemiah to lead this important building project. Nehemiah was a smart leader that prayed for God's help. After about two difficult months, God's people, with God's help, finished the wall. To celebrate, they gathered to worship. The people cried for joy when the word was read, because they hadn't heard it read for years and now they would be back in relationship with God.

Discuss the Story at Home:

- How was Nehemiah a good leader?
- What can we learn about worshipping God from the Israelites?
- What hopeful prophecy did Jeremiah make?
